Introduction

Before this trip we had taken part in the project “RussiaToday\ GermanyToday” and “Tandem”. During this project we interacted with students of the University of Hanover. At first, we skyped with them (from the end of July till the beginning of August), and then we met face to face in Saint-Petersburg at the beginning of August 2015.

Study

During our stay we attended classes where we were taught German. Our last lesson was in modern art museum the Sprengel Museum Hannover. There we put our knowledge to use, to make a short report about pictures, submitted in museum.

Leibniz Universität Hannover

During University of Hanover our visit we've seen the infrastructure of the University: academic buildings, the canteen, the library and the gym.

Culture

Our free time was spent to familiarize with the cultural values of the city of Hanover and Lower Saxony.

Sightseeing tour through the city center was organized for us. There have seen the most interesting and beautiful places of the Hannover.

We we've organized and visited the Marienburg Castle near Hanover and Bremen with the students from the University of Hannover.

Definitely it allowed to discover the German culture better, and also to make friends with these students.

Conclusion

The result of our week-trip was the presentation of photos made at SprengelMuseumHannover and two video-reports at the site: <https://russiagermanytoday.wordpress.com/>.

And we still stay in touch with the students from the University of Hanover`s students.
